Georgia-Pacific and the Environment . . . What A Great Team

The Georgia-Pacific Monticello Mill is more than a paper mill. G-P cares about the air, land water, soil, wildlife and the natural resources.

G-P's goal is to be good environmental stewards. Working through the Wildlife Habitat Council's Wildlife at Work program, employees developed a long-term management plan to enhance wildlife on the mill property, employee morale and environmental awareness.

The Monticello mill was the first certified Wildlife Habitat Council site in the state of Mississippi.

President's Message

I am pleased to welcome you to Copiah-Lincoln Community College. I hope you enjoy your visit to our campus.

Co-Lin has a rich tradition of successful athletic programs. This tradition continues as our athletic teams and individual athletes excel in competitive arenas. Not only have our teams posted outstanding athletic accomplishments for the 2006-2007 season, but several teams and individual students have been recognized by the NJCAA for Academic All-American honors! The men's tennis team was the No. 1 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year. Congratulations to Coach Mike McIntyre and the Wolfpack tennis team. In addition, five other Co-Lin teams finished ranked in the top 30. The college also had a record seven student-athletes named NJCAA Distinguished All-Americans. I invite our fans and guests to see the lists of those recognitions on pages 32 and 33.

The Wolfpack football team had a great 2006 season and ended the year in an outstanding manner by winning the Sea Island Golden Isles Bowl Classic 21-0 in Brunswick, Ga. It was the first shutout in the bowl's history and they were ranked No. 6 in the Nation! Congratulations to Coaches Glenn Davis, Brett Shufelt, Carson Jeffers, Calvin Green, the coaching staff and players on a great finale to the 2006 season!

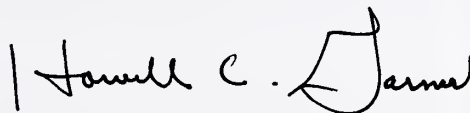

The Lady Wolves basketball team also had a great season winning the 2007 NJCAA Region XXIII Championship and finishing No. 6 in the NJCAA National Basketball Tournament in Salina, Ks. Congratulations to Coach Gwyn Young on another excellent season.

Our coaching staff is dedicated to providing our athletes with the best training possible, and the opportunity for them to learn and practice good sportsmanship, while enjoying a variety of competitive sports. We deeply appreciate their dedication and hard work to make our athletic programs outstanding. We also have a number of volunteer coaches in several sports. We appreciate their dedication to the sport and to the student athletes who represent Co-Lin in the playing arena.

We use this opportunity to extend our thanks to our students, family members and patrons for your support of our athletic programs. Your continued support makes Co-Lin a very special place.

We extend a warm welcome to our visiting coaches and athletic teams. To our visitors, friends and colleagues, we hope you enjoy your stay, and we welcome you back at any time.

Co-Lin Coaches

Gwyn Young
Athletic Director and
Women's Head
Basketball Coach

Serving the college as athletic director since 1989, Gwyn Young has been head coach of the Lady Wolves basketball team for 31 years. Since coming to Co-Lin, he has seen his team win title after title and has compiled a record of 673 wins and 207 losses to rank him as the NJCAA Second Winningest Active Coach in the nation and the Winningest Mississippi Junior College Women's Coach.

Coach Young has put the Lady Wolves on the map as one of the nation's most premier basketball teams. Under Coach Young's direction, the Lady Wolves have accomplished numerous awards including 19 regular season first place finishes, 13 South Division Championships, 17 State Tournament Appearances, five MACJC State Championships (1993, 1997, 1999, 2002 and 2003) and been runner-up to the State Champions five times (1983, 1984, 1998, 2006, and 2007). The Lady Wolves have won five NJCAA Region XXIII Championships (1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, and 2007), been runner-up to the NJCAA Region XXIII Champions seven times (1990, 1996, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2004 and 2006), and made five NJCAA National Tournament appearances (1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, and 2007). Coach Young's team finished 6th in the 2007 National Tournament and has been consistently nationally ranked.

Young was named Region XXIII Coach of the Year in 1989, 1993, 1997, 2002, and 2007. Coach of the Year honors were also received by Coach Young from the MACJC and the MAC in 1993, 2001, and 2007. Young has also been named The Clarion-Ledger's Community College Coach of the Year on numerous occasions.

Coach Young also serves as the Vice President of Student Services. He is a graduate of Copiah-Lincoln and was named to the college's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997. Coach Young received his bachelor's degree from Mississippi College, and master's degree from the University of Southern Mississippi.

He is married to the former Velesta Smith. They have two grown children Lane and Jessica and three grandchildren, Justin and Mary Gwyn Hynum and Mailey Kate Young.

Keith Case
Head Baseball Coach

Keith Case enters his 16th season as the field general of the Copiah-Lincoln baseball team. Case joined the Co-Lin athletic department after a successful career in the Mississippi High School ranks.

Case has guided the Wolves to eight National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Regional Tournament appearances and two MACJC State Tournaments. His 1998, 2000, 2001 and 2005 teams won the NJCAA Region XXIII Division II championship and advanced to the NJCAA Central District Tournaments. The 2000 and 2005 teams advanced to the NJCAA Division II World Series in Millington, Tennessee and finished No. 4 in the Nation.

Case received NJCAA Region XXIII Coach of the Year honors in 1998, 2000, 2001 and 2005. Case received the Louisville Slugger Excellence in Coaching Award in 1998. He was awarded Diamond Baseball Company's Coach of the Year Award in 2000, 2001 and 2005.

During his career, Case has compiled over 540 victories as a head coach. He has guided his teams to conference, division, district, state, and region championships during his 24 years as a head coach. In the last 15 years, Case has been instrumental in placing Co-Lin Baseball in the National Rankings on the diamond and in the classroom.

The Wolfpack finished in the top 10 academically in 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, and 2007. He has coached five NJCAA All-Americans, five Distinguished Academic All-Americans, nine Academic All-Americans. Sixty-seven former Co-Lin players have gone on to play at four-year college and universities and 11 former players have played or are currently playing professionally. Over the last 15 years, 32 former players are now coaching on the high school or collegiant level.

Case holds a B.S. degree from Mississippi State University and a M. Ed. from William Carey College. He completed additional studies at Mississippi College and the University of Southern Mississippi.

A native of Tryus, Mississippi, Case is a graduate of Monticello High School. He is married to the former Susan Caffey of Jackson. They have two daughters, Macie, 16, and Ras, 8.

Co-Lin Coaches

Glenn Davis begins his fourth year as head coach of the Wolves. He led the Wolves to a 21-0 shutout victory over the Georgia Military Bulldogs in the 2006 Sea Island Company Golden Isles Bowl Classic. The Wolfpack finished the 2006 season with a 9-3 record, ranked No. 6 in the final NJCAA poll, MACJC South Division Champions and State Runner-Up.

Davis previously served at Co-Lin as offensive coordinator from 1995-96. During those two years, he helped lead the team to a 15-5 overall record.

Davis is a 1982 graduate of Delta State University where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back and outside linebacker for the Statesmen. His other coaching stints include offensive coordinator at South Natchez High School (1982-85), graduate assistant at Mississippi State (1986-87), defensive backs and wide receivers coach at the University of North Alabama (1988-91), and quarterbacks, running backs, and wide receivers coach at Holmes Community College (1992-94). From 1997-2003 he served as running backs coach at Mississippi State University under former head coach Jackie Sherrill.

Under Davis' tutelage, the Bulldogs lead the Southeastern Conference in rushing in 2000 averaging 193.8 yards per game and ranked third in 1998 averaging 172 yards per game. He mentored Diconzo Miller to Mississippi State's sixth-ever, 1,000-yard season in 2000 (1,005 yards) and James Johnson to the fourth and fifth-ever, 1,000-yard campaigns in 1997 (1,069 yards) and 1998 (1,383 yards).

He and his wife Minta, are the parents of two children, Ann Shelby and Micah.

Glenn Davis
Head Football Coach

Josh Garrett begins his first year as assistant baseball coach. Garrett, a former Co-Lin pitcher, will primarily work with the Wolfpack pitching staff.

Garrett is a 1999 graduate of Lawrence County High School. He was named to The Daily Leader's Most Valuable Player on the 1999 All-Area Baseball Team.

He was a member of the 2000 Co-Lin team that finished fourth in the NJCAA Division II World Series in Millington, Tenn. While at Co-Lin, Garrett was selected NJCAA All-Region XXIII and MACJC All-State. His nine wins and 15 starts in 2000, ranks second on Co-Lin's all-time list.

After Co-Lin, Garrett signed with the University of Southern Mississippi. He transferred to Belhaven College where he played for former USM coach Hill Denson. He was voted team captain two consecutive years and led the team to their first GMAC Conference Title. Garrett holds Belhaven's single season strikeout record (108).

Garrett received his B.S. degree in sports administration from Belhaven and is currently pursuing a master's degree in sports management at the University of Southern Mississippi. He will also teach physical education classes at Co-Lin. In three years as an assistant coach at Laurel's Watkins High School, Garrett helped Coach Luke Leggett's team reach the Class 4A state playoffs.

Garrett and his wife, the former Kail Baldwin of Brookhaven, are the parents of a one-year-old son, Wyatt.

Josh Garrett
Assistant Baseball Coach

Calvin Green enters his 14th year on the Co-Lin football staff. Green coaches the defense, specializing with the secondary players. Several of the players he's coached have gone on to become NJCAA All-Americans, as well as NCAA Division I signees.

Prior to coming to Co-Lin in January 1994, Green served as assistant defensive back coach at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba under the former Mississippi State All-American and National League standout Tom Goode. Green also served as an assistant at Lawrence County High School.

Green graduated from Monticello High School where he was a three-year letterman as a defensive back. He attended Copiah-Lincoln Junior College as a member of Coach Ray Ishee's 1985 State Champion and East Bowl Champion teams. In 1986, Green was chosen MACJC Most Valuable Defensive Back. He also received All-Region XXIII and All-State honors at defensive back and was selected to play in the MACJC All-Star Game.

He earned a B.S. degree in recreation from Alcorn State University. During his football career at Alcorn, Green earned letterman honors and in 1988 was a member of the "Nation's Best Secondary."

He is married to the former Falana Armstrong. They are the parents of two children, Farrod, 10 and Sabaric, 7.

Johnny Williams begins his 15th year as assistant coach for the Lady Wolves softball team. He served as head coach in 2002.

Williams is division chair of the computer science/mathematics division and has been a member of the faculty at Co-Lin since 1987.

He received his bachelor's degree in mathematics from the University of Southern Mississippi and his master's degree in mathematics from Southeastern Louisiana University in 1979 with a major in mathematics and a minor in education. At Southeastern, he was a member of Pi Mu Epsilon National Mathematics Honor Society and served as president in 1979. He has done additional study at Mississippi State University, Alcorn State University, Jackson State University, and the University of Southern Mississippi.

Prior to coming to Co-Lin he was a teacher and coach at Crescent City Baptist High School in Metairie, Louisiana. He previously taught and coached at Bogue Chitto High School where he was affiliated with the Mississippi Education Association, Mississippi Association for Adult Education, and the Lincoln County Education Association.

At Co-Lin, he sponsors the Micro-Computer Club where his computer programming teams won first place in 1992 in the MECA Community College Programming Contest, and second place in 1997. He was selected to represent Co-Lin at the NISOD Conference in 1994, received Co-Lin's High Performance Award in 2000, selected as the Wesson Chamber of Commerce Teacher of the Year in 2000, and Co-Lin's Outstanding Academic Instructor in 2001.

He is a member of Wesson Baptist Church, and the Wesson High School Booster Club. He and his wife, the former Cindy Hodges, have two sons, Ryan, 22, and Wade, 20.

Cole Zumbro begins his first year as assistant coach. Zumbro, a former Co-Lin pitcher/first baseman, will work with the Wolfpack infielders and catchers.

Zumbro is a 2002 graduate of Franklin County High School where he was selected All-District and played in the MHSAA All-Star Game. He was named The Daily Leader's Player of the Year in 2000 and the All-Area Dream Team in 2001. Zumbro was drafted by the Montreal Expos in the 36th round of the Major League Baseball Draft in 2001.

At Co-Lin, Zumbro was named MACJC All-State and NJCAA All-Region XXIII his sophomore year. He posted a 7-2 record in 2004 with a 3.45

ERA. As the designated hitter, he was second on the team with a .339 batting average. He accounted for 5 home runs and 22 RBIs.

After Co-Lin, he signed with the University of Montevallo (AL) where he was named Gulf South Conference Pitcher of the Week. He transferred to Mississippi College for his senior season and was a member of the 2006 team that won the American Southwest Conference East Division. Zumbro served as a student assistant with Mississippi College in 2007. He is currently finishing his internship for completion of his undergraduate degree.

He is the son of Mike and Kathleen Zumbro of Franklin County.

Cheerleading today is a unique combination of athleticism, entertainment and student leadership.

Cheerleading tryouts are held each April. Former Co-Lin cheerleaders practice with the new cheerleaders starting in early March so they can be prepared for tryouts. Starting in May the new squad travels all over the surrounding counties teaching private camps to junior high cheerleaders. This continues until the middle of July. Each camp lasts anywhere from three to five days.

Co-Lin cheerleaders practice at least three to four times a week starting in May and continuing until school begins in August.

Co-Lin's cheerleaders have attended UCA cheer camp at the University of Alabama the last eight years. They have won numerous awards and trophies year after year.

Cheering at Co-Lin is a year round sport and requires hard work and dedication.

Former Co-Lin cheerleaders have gone on to cheer at NCAA Division I schools including the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, the University of Southern Mississippi, Southeastern Louisiana University, and Delta State University.

Twyana Britt Morse begins her 11th year as cheerleading sponsor.

The cheerleaders are having a 10-year reunion (Twyana Morse era) during the college's homecoming activities. They will perform at the homecoming pep rally and during halftime of the game.

Put down the remote! Do not change that dial! You have entered TV Land...Blue Wave style.

The 2007-2008 edition of the Blue Wave Show Band promises to deliver the kind of show the audience at H. L. Stone Stadium have come to expect... a high energy show with screaming horns, powerful percussion, astonishing visuals provided by the Colettes and the color guard and, of course, a healthy dose of humor.

The entertaining show is filled with some of your favorite television show theme songs, beginning with "The Fishin' Hole." The band will follow with an electrifying arrangement of "Meet the Flintstones." The Colette/color guard feature song is from the hit television show "Fame" and the percussion solo, written by assistant band director Chris Warren, comes from the popular show "Green Acres." The show will end with the song "Where Everyone Knows Your Name" the theme from the Emmy-award winning television show "Cheers."

The Blue Wave Show Band is led on the field by Drum Major Kimeka Williams of Brookhaven. The percussion captain is sophomore Anthony Berch of Hazlehurst. Color guard captains are Liz Sander-son of Natchez, Naomi Meadows of Magee and Kelly Nance of Brookhaven. Our head Colette is Kelli Herrington of Brookhaven. Colette captains are Amanda Miller of Franklin County and Lindsey Mills of Brookhaven.

The Blue Wave Show Band is directed by R. Shaw Furlow, Chris Warren, Shelley Huskey, and Stanley W. Stewart.

With only five returning starters off last year's Golden Isles Bowl team, the Wolfpack are looking to a talented group of freshmen to mature quickly.

"Winning the bowl game helps recruiting and sells our program to the major colleges," Davis said.

The Wolfpack received a hard dose of reality as they lost freshman defensive end Larry Winters of Brookhaven in an automobile accident the first week of classes.

"Larry was a late arrival to camp," said fourth year head coach Glenn Davis. "It really hit his teammates from Brookhaven High School hard."

Davis said that the 2007 season depends on the leadership of the small nucleus of returning players.

Offensively, the line will be anchored by pre-season All-American Edward Prince and Phillip

Freeman. Players with some experience include center Benji Maher, running back Kentrell Cleveland and wide receiver Alpha Sanders. Expecting to make an immediate impact on offense are wide receivers Brad Mullen and Toddrick Bajoie, tight end Jonathan Massey (Vanderbilt transfer), quarterback Micah Davis, quarterback/wide receiver Jason Bruce. Expected to see action on the offensive line are John Knight, Timothy Thompson, Ian Burnett, and Chris Payne.

Defensively, pre-season All-American defensive end Raven Gray and linebackers Johnny Sanders and Tray Hardaway will provide the leadership and experience. Seeing action in the defensive secondary are DeArrion Wilbert, Jonte Marshall, Bertrail Easterling, Andrew Magee, Darron Dampier, Sa'Mel Washington, and LSU transfer Troy Giddens.

see action at the linebacker position. Wilfred Journet and Gray will anchor the corners of the line. Sophomores D. J. Shaw and William L. Davis saw playing time in 2006 on the interior line. Freshman Jazzmen Guy should be seeing plenty of playing time on the line.

The Wolves will depend on freshman Will Thibodeaux for kicking and punting duties. Daniel Herrington will be the long snapper on special teams.

The Wolfpack is ranked No. 24 in the NJCAA pre-season football poll. Joining Co-Lin in the always competitive South Division are nationally ranked Pearl River (No. 1), Mississippi Gulf Coast (No. 9), Jones County, and Southwest.

Also on the Wolfpack's schedule are Nothwest (No. 20), Itawamba, East Mississippi, Hinds, and East Central.

can and Mississippi State University signee), quarterback Cedric Johnson (NJCAA Honorable Mention All-American, Golden Isles Bowl Most Valuable Player, MACJC Player of the Year and Jacksonville State University signee), Michael Bibbs (Iowa State University), DeAndre Davis (University of New Mexico), Aaron Johns (University of Alabama-Birmingham), Jasper O'Quinn (Mississippi State University), Blake Spiers (University of Southern Mississippi).

The 2007 Wolfpack will feature more speed and skill according to second year head coach Frank Smith. A talented group of freshmen will join nine returning starters off last year's 4-10-1 squad.

Returning for the Wolfpack are defensive captain and team leader Rich Scott of Franklin County. Also providing plenty of experience are sophomores Scott Pollard, Travis Stalans, Scott Hanson, Caleb Weeks, Gabriel Alvarez, Josh Calhoun, and Brent Fielder.

Freshmen expected to make an immediate impact are Ryan Ratliff of Franklin County High School. Ratliff led the state his junior year in goals scored and is the overall career goal leader in their division. Joining Ratliff are Franklin County teammates Josh Dixon and Austin McCormick.

Tyler Cheramie (Dutchtown High School) played in the most competitive divisions in Louisiana. He brings speed and an incredible shot to the team.

Other talented freshmen include Curtis Maier and Eric Hollowell, both of Cathedral High School (Natchez); Russ Whitfield and Cody Ward, both of Terry High School; Matthew Lee, Zach Goza, and Ethan Brown of Central Hinds Academy; Kyle Neely of Mendenhall High School, Justin Saulters of Brandon High School, Nick James and Cass Sellers, both of Loyd Star High School; and Jody Bell of Rebul Academy.

Members of the 2006 team that are continuing their soccer careers are Brad Brister (Delta State University) and Demetrious Berry (William Carey University).

According to Coach Smith, if the team stay shealthy, they will be a contender in the competitive South Division.

Assisting Coach Smith this season is Brad Young. Young was two-year player for the Wolfpack soccer team and selected captain his sophomore year. He was named a National Junior College Athletic Association Academic All-American. He is currently attending Mississippi College majoring in biology education.

The Lady Wolves had their best season in school history in 2006 finishing with a 8-7 record and fifth place in the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior College's (MACJC) South Division and under first year head coach Frank Smith. The Lady Wolves also received the Tom Shepard Award for sportsmanship and were the National Junior College Athletic Association's (NJCAA) No. 8 Academic Team of the Year with a team grade point average of ???.

The 2007 team will feature a mixture of experienced sophomores and talented freshmen. Sophomores anchoring the Lady Wolves are NJCAA All-Region XXIII and MACJC All-State forward Amber Bowman of Wesson. Bowman was ranked 49th in the nation in 2006 with 13 goals and 6 assists in 14 games. Also returning is goalkeeper Ashley Bankston of Wesson. Bankston was ranked No. 47 in the nation among goalkeepers. Also returning with valuable experience are Kayla Whatley (midfielder) and Kristen Wilson (forward/midfielder).

A talented group of freshmen include Barbara Dotson (defense/sweeper) and Haley Baggett (forward) of Terry High School; Caroline Yarborough (forward/midfielder) and Beth Shell (defense), both of Franklin County High School; Savannah Peebles (midfielder/forward/goalkeeper) of False River Academy (LA); midfielders CaryAnne Rake, Mishaka Moore, and Ashley Holtslander, all of Brookhaven High School; Montana Hahn (midfielder), Jackie Farmer (defense), and Kadrinna Owens (defense), all of Crystal Springs High School; and Brittany Davis (midfielder/defense) of Clinton High School.

Smith is a graduate of William Carey College with a degree in marketing/management with a minor in physical education.

As a youth, he played select team soccer in Clinton, high school soccer at Hillcrest Christian School in Jackson and continued on the college level at William Carey. Smith received the Spirit of America Award as a high school senior for excellence and leadership in high school athletics.

Smith has been coaching in the Mississippi Private School Association for the last five years at Presbyterian Christian School and Brookhaven Academy. His coaching record includes 59 wins, 19 losses and 4 ties, a MPSA South Division Championship in 2003 and two semi-final appearances with Brookhaven Academy in 2004 and 2005.

A member of the National Soccer Coaches Association, he holds his United States Soccer Federation National "D" license. Smith also serves as the director of coaching for the Brookhaven Youth Soccer Organization.

Assisting Smith this season will be former two-year starter Amanda Harwick.

According to Coach Smith, the Lady Wolves should provide a lot of excitement with their speed and talent in 2007.

After finishing the 2006-2007 campaign with a 20-9 record and a second place finish for the South State Regular Season Championship, and runners-up in the MACJC State Championship, the Wolves return two full-time starters. The Wolves were also semi-finalists in the NJCAA Regional XXIII Tournament.

Returning starters include Greg Truvillion, a 6'8" forward from Lansing, MI. Truvillion averaged a team high 16 points and 8 rebounds. He was named First Team MACJC All-State and First Team NJCAA All-Region XXIII. The other returning starter is Julius Blanks, a 6'3" guard from Gautier, MS. Blanks averaged 6 points and 2 rebounds per game as a freshman.

"We have several players returning that played valuable minutes if not started at times for us," said head coach Dennis Sims. These players include Corey London, a 6'0" guard from Irondale, AL, who was third on the team in scoring at 8 points per game. Anthony Wilcher, a 6'4" guard from McCall Creek, MS, who averaged 3 points per game. Jemario Martin, a 6'0" guard from Crystal Springs High School returns after sitting out the 2006-2007 season. Martin averaged 5.4 points and 1 assist per game his freshman year at Co-Lin.

New signees and transfers include Brandt Hood, a 5'10" guard from Wesson Attendance Center; Lewanski Newsome, a 6'5" forward from Mendenhall High School; Jason Tillman, a 6'0" guard from Mendenhall High School; Gerald Bass, a 6'0" guard from Mendenhall

High School; Kevin Horton, a 6'3" guard from Terry High; Torrian Sanders, a 5'9" guard from East Okitibbeha High; DeAngelo Peters, a 6'1" guard from East Okitibbeha High; Craig Tyler, a 6'5" forward from Lawrence County High School; Tadavious Williams, a 5'7" guard from Gautier High School; and Trent Hutchin, a 6'0" guard from Woodlawn High School in Baton Rouge, La.

Lost to graduation are Christian Marshall (MACJC Second Team All-State), Zach Thomas (MACJC All-Star Game), Mississippi College; Darrell Johnson, University of Southern Mississippi; Derrick Richardson, Southern University in Baton Rouge; and Charles Lewis.

The Lady Wolves finished the 2006-2007 season with a 30 - 5 record, MACJC South Division Championship, MACJC State Runner-up, NJCAA Region XXIII Championship and a sixth place finish in the NJCAA National Tournament. The Lady Wolves return five experienced players and one transfer. Coach Gwyn Young is excited about the possibilities of the upcoming season with the return of these four sophomores, one transfer and a talented freshman class.

Once again, the Lady Wolves will be looking to the sophomore class to bring experience and leadership to direct the 2007-2008 team. Even though Young has no starters returning, he is counting on his four experienced players and one transfer in this year's line-up and a good freshman class. "With a lot of hard work, dedication and teamwork we should be able to compete at a high level in the tough MACJC conference," said Coach Young.

Returning sophomores Kristin Ellis (Vicksburg High School) played in 35 games averaging 4.9 points and 3.8 rebounds per game, Alisha Mason (Enterprise High School) played in 35 games averaging 7.3 points and 3.4 rebounds per game, Jalissa Sandifer (Hazlehurst High School) played in 21 games averaging 2.4 points and 1.2 rebounds per game, Shalenia Wilcher (Franklin County High School) played in 27 games averaging 1.4 points and 1 rebound per game, Reisha Bullock transferred from Iowa Western Community College and DeLaSalle

High School (LA) averaged 11.8 points, 3.3 rebounds, 2.6 assists, 2.6 steals and named Second Team All-Region, Tyesha Williams (Crystal Springs High School) played in 13 games averaging 2 points per game. These sophomores will be counted on to guide the team with leadership and experience.

Freshmen signees and walk-ons Rhonda Dumas (John Ehret High School), Veronica Miller (Jefferson County High School), Sondra Moncure (Hinds Agricultural High School), Kacey Rutland (Brookhaven Academy), Shasta Porter (Bogue Chitto High School), Kimberlee Thomas (Bogue Chitto High School), Kaomi Hutton (Wingfield High School), Kyla Thomas (Hahnville (LA) High School), Shrica Ward (Forest Hill High School), TeAirra Wilbert (Hazlehurst High School), and Mercedes Williams (Hinds Agriculture High School) are expected to provide immediate help for the 2007-2008 season.

Lost to graduation are NJCAA First Team All-American Nikki Williams (MACJC All-Star, MACJC First Team All-State, All-Region 23, All-Region 23 All-Tournament and Lamar University signee), Erica Trahan (MACJC All-Star, All-Region 23, All-Region 23 All-Tournament and Jackson State University signee), Hanna Porter (Newberry College signee), Corissa Tillman (William Carey University signee), Dominique Whitfield (University of West Alabama signee), Whitney Scott (Southern University signee), Alicia Kennedy, and Roneasa Garner (NJCAA Academic All-American).

The 2008 version of the Copleh-Lincoln Community College Wolfpack will look to find the consistent level of play that has been a trademark of Co-Lin baseball. Thirteen players will return off of the 2007 squad that finished the year as the nation's No. 8 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year with a 3.20 team grade point average.

Leading the returning players will be MACJC All-State and NJCAA All-Region shortstop Steven Gauthé of Belle Rose, La. Gauthé also was named the Rawlings Gold Glove National Shortstop of the Year. Joining Gauthé as returning position players will be third baseman Timmy Foster (Adams Christian) who hit .343 with 5 homeruns and 13 doubles, outfielder Paul Davis (Brookhaven Academy) who hit .331 with 3 home runs and 5 doubles, DH/first baseman David New (Adams Christian) who hit .323 with 3 homeruns and 7 doubles, catcher James Antoon (Kentwood, La.) who hit .297, centerfielder Montez Chatman (Maggie High School) who hit .259 and had 13 stolen bases, second baseman Jordan Toney (Mendenhall High School) who hit .235.

Other returnees include outfielder Taebyus Smith (Lawrence County) .211, outfielder Marty Ballard (Lawrence County) who hit .153 and infielder Russ Carter (Richland HS) who hit .125.

Pitcher Brandt Hinton (Brookhaven High School) will return as the anchor of a relatively young pitching staff. Hinton was 6-4 in 2007 and held opponents to a miniscule .211 batting average. Other returning pitchers include Justin Champagne (Houma, La) 2-2, Marty Ballard 0-2, Avery Mathes (Vicksburg High School) 0-0 and Timmy Foster 0-1. Patrick Shumaker (East Rankin) will be back after missing the 2007 season due to an arm injury.

Several new faces will be counted on to energize the Wolfpack. The 2008 freshman class includes catchers Mitch Pappas (Brookhaven High School) and Zach Summers (Lawrence County). Several dual position players will be vying for time in two different positions include RHP/OF Josh Coon (Brookhaven High School), RHP/IF Jarred Rogers (Lloyd Star), Freshman pitchers include RHP Christian Malbrough (Vandebuilt, Houma La), RHP Ian Ferrell (Union High School), RHP Kyle Sumlin (Sumrall High School) and RHP Kolby Godfrey (Trinity Episcopal).

The 2008 will mark the 25th season for Coach Keith Case, with the last 16 in a Co-Lin uniform. First year assistant coaches include former Co-Lin standouts Josh Garrett and Cole Zumbro. Both return to Co-Lin after stints at Laurel and Mississippi College respectively. They both played on teams that were nationally ranked while at Co-Lin.

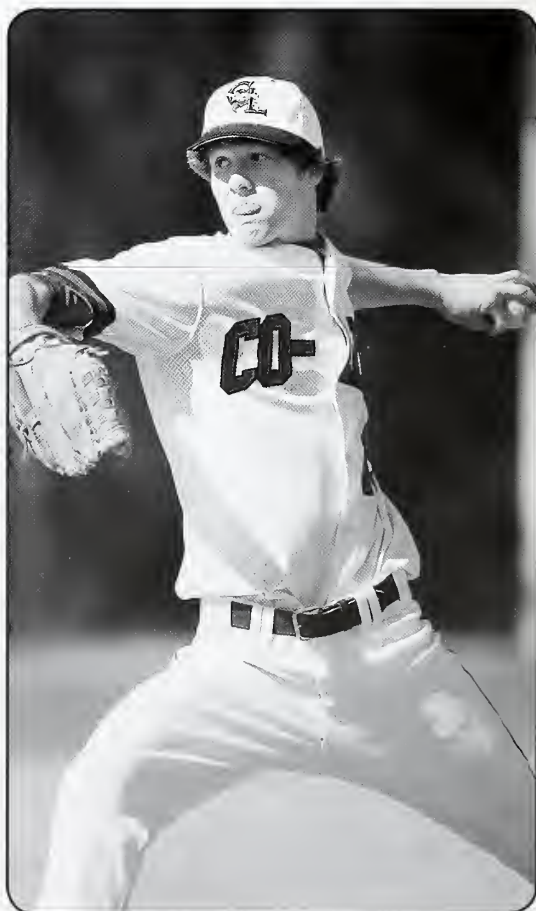

The Wolfpack will work hard to find the right combination and chemistry needed to succeed on the Superstar national level. Sullivan Field should be

The 2008 Lady Wolves softball team looks to begin another run at making the playoffs. Last year's team had a disappointing finish with a 25-15 record. The injury bug hit hard late in the season, with three key players lost and one severely limited. The Lady Wolves lost several very close division games, finishing one game out of the playoffs. This ended a four-year string of finishing first or second in the very tough MACJC South Division.

All nine of last year's sophomores graduated, an accomplishment Head Coach Allen Kent is very proud of.

"We try to stress that there is a reason 'student' comes before 'athlete' in the term 'student athlete.'" High profile players lost to graduation were two time NUCAA All-Region XXII selection Erin Douglass and NJCAA All-Region XXIII and NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American selection Annie Selman.

This year's squad returns NJCAA All-Region XXIII pitcher/utility player Meleah Brown. Pitcher/second baseman Kalya Crochet, infielder Ashley Sykes, outfielder Emily Langley, and pitcher Caroline Burkes are other returning sophomores hoping to provide leadership.

Brown lead the Lady Wolves in many offensive categories last year, including RBIs, doubles, homeruns and slugging percentage. She compiled a .382 batting average, while also fashioning a 7-4 record on the mound with a 2.53 ERA.

Crochet hit .375 and had a pitching record of 9-5. Sykes finished with a .342 average and was really swinging a hot bat when she went down with an ankle injury and was lost for the last 14 games of the season. Langley hit .348, leading the team in stolen bases and was second in RBIs. Burkes posted a 4-2 record with a 2.17 ERA.

A key signee this season is the addition of sophomore transfer Rebecca Bailey of Live Oak High School (LA). The former LSU signee is a pitcher/first baseman who looks to provide an immediate boost to the Lady Wolves squad.

Incoming freshmen include Bogue Chitto products Candace Avants (utility), Chelsey Miller (outfield), and Devon Welch (utility), Copiah Academy catcher Becca Boone, Magee

LADY WOLVES SOFTBALL

High School utility player Brittany Watts, Lawrence County pitcher/utility Ashley Jones, ACCS infielder Alex Foster, catcher Missy Paulina from Grace King High School (LA), pitcher Rebecca Rousseau of San Antonio, TX, and pinch runner Amber Bowman from Wesson.

Pitching will be at a premium this year. The Lady Wolves will begin the fall session with six pitchers. Sophomore hurlers will be Rebecca Bailey, Meleah Brown, Caroline Burkes and Kayla Crochet. Freshman pitchers are Ashley Jones and Rebecca Rousseau.

Having six pitchers is unusual, but not necessarily a problem, according to Kent. It gives us so much more depth, as well as many relief options. Most of our pitchers swing the bat well enough to be on the field even when they are not in the circle.

The catching position should be strong as well, with four incoming freshmen with plenty of catching experience. Candace Avants, Becca Boone, Missy Paulina and Brittany Watts all have spent time behind the plate. Boone and Paulina probably have put in the most time at catcher, but having others that can get back there is always a plus. It's not the most glorious job on the field, but one of the most important.

We feel really good about this position for the next two years.

Errors plagued the Lady Wolves last season, averaging just over two per game, accounting for 70 unearned runs. "We must do a better job of taking care of the ball," said Kent. "Our pitchers should keep us in most games, but the defense has to be able to back them up."

Our team speed should be a little better this year. I would like to see us steal more than we did last year with 50 stolen bases. We have the ability to steal more, its just getting those people on base in the right situations. Langley, Avants, Miller and Bowman all have the potential to put up some good numbers on the bases.

We must be at the top of our game every time we take the field. There are no cakewalks in the South Division. Defending State and Regional Champion Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College only lost a couple of players. South Division runner-up Pearl River returns one of the top pitchers in the league and is always strong. Jones County has developed into a major contender and Southwest will be much improved.

Most people believe that the South Division is by far the strongest from top to bottom, so its up to us to take care of business. We can't count on someone else beating another team. Our previous success only makes teams bring their A-game each time they face us. Our whole league is improving and that is good for the state.

MEN'S TENNIS

The Co-Lin men's tennis team continued their tradition of excellence in the classroom as they were named the National Junior College Athletic Association's (NJCAA) Academic Team of the Year and the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) Scholar-Athlete Team of the Year with a 3.61 grade point average. This marks the third time in five years (2002 and 2005) that Coach Mike McIntyre's team has captured the top NJCAA award. His 2003, 2004 and 2006 team were runners-up.

Individually, sophomore Cody Cunningham of Brookhaven was named NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American/ITA Scholar Athlete. Sophomores Giles Langston and Jon Goldman, both of Brookhaven, and Josh Peckham of Magee were named Distinguished Academic All-Americans/ITA Scholar Athletes. Freshman Brett Hart of Brookhaven was also named an ITA Scholar Athlete.

The Wolfpack finished the 2007 campaign ranked No. 24 with an 11-5 record and captured third place in the MACJC South Division.

Coach McIntyre said that his year's team was a pleasure to coach. "These young men gave me their best effort all year long," McIntyre said. "Several teams have foreign players who have been playing tennis most of their lives. Our players were all from the Co-Lin district and have mostly just played local high school tennis."

The Wolves will need to rebuild in 2008. Lost to graduation are Cody Cunningham, Giles Langston, Jon Goldman, Josh Peckham, and Phillip Hammond. Reese Daniels has decided to transfer. Only two players return off the 2007 team, No. 1 singles and No. 1 doubles player Joey Ratcliff and Brett Hart. Signees include MHSAA 1A Boys Doubles State Champions Chase Bonham and Corey Buitt, of Bogue Chitto High School.

Coach McIntyre's career dual match coaching record 398-78 in 29 seasons with five State and four NJCAA Regional Team Championships in addition to 10 team Runners-Up titles with over 70 individual state and regional titles and 12 teams ranked in NJCAA Top 25.

The Lady Wolves tennis team finished a successful 2007 season with a 9-5 record and ranked No. 11 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Academic Team of the Year with a 3.33 team grade point average.

Coach Holli Adams Pepper will rely heavily on the leadership of her returning sophomores and a talented group of freshmen in 2008.

Returning sophomores are Mindy Morse of Loyd Star (No. 1 singles and doubles), Whitney Kyzar of Enterprise (No. 2 singles and doubles), Jenna Dickerson of North Pike (No. 4 singles/No. 2 doubles, and Lauren Mitchell of Brookhaven (No. 6 singles/No. 3 doubles). Lost from last year's team are Mare Sims of Wesson (No. 3 singles/No. 1 doubles), Julie Meacham of Brookhaven (No. 5 singles/No. 3 doubles), and Caroline Blevins of Jackson Academy.

Newcomers include Sarah Taylor of Brookhaven Academy (MPSA State Champion in mixed doubles, MPSA South State Champion in girls doubles), Megan Scott of Fountain-Fort Carson (CO) High School (team captain, second place in regionals, state tournament qualifier in girls doubles), Lucy Wilson of Brookhaven High School, and Heather Huff of West Lincoln.

Mindy Morse

Coach Pepper begins her third season as head coach of the Lady Wolves. She was a member of the 2002 MACJC State and NJCAA Region XXIII Championship Team at Co-Lin. In 2003, Pepper won the state championship in No. 1 doubles and No. 2 singles. In 2004 she won the state championship in No. 4 singles and No. 2 doubles. Pepper was a NJCAA Distinguished Academic All-American in 2004 and inducted into the Co-Lin Hall of Fame.

Pepper played No. 2 doubles and No. 3 singles at Mississippi College where she was team captain. She received the Choctaw Award and was named American Southwest Conference All-East First Team, All-ASC Tournament First Team, Newcomer of the Year, ASC Eastern Player of the Week, and to the Academic All-ASC Team.

WOLFPACK GOLF

The 2008 Wolfpack golf team will feature a young, talented group of freshmen. Coach Ronny Ross is excited about the opportunities this group.

Members of the 2008 team include Chad Vivien of Purvis, Ulric Minor of Natchez, Cory Norton of Hattiesburg, Auston Nolan of Tupelo, Brandt Hood of Wesson, and Ryan Ratcliff of Franklin County. Ross traveled all over the state to find this group of talented golfers.

Lost to graduation is National Junior College Athletic Association All-Region XXIII, and Mississippi Association of

Community and Junior College All-State golfer Grant McDonnial of Brookhaven (Delta State University). McDonnial finished 26th in the NJCAA National Golf Tournament. Also lost from the 2007 team are Matthew Williamson, Bo Sandifer, and Sam Hall.

The 2007 team was the NJCAA No. 18 Academic Team of the Year with a 3.01 team grade point average.

This is Co-Lin's third year to competed in NJCAA Division II.

Ross begins his eighth year as the Wolfpack head golf coach. He also serves as the director of golf operations at Wolf Hollow Golf Club.

Assisting Ross for his second year is Craig Hennington. Hennington is a mathematics instructor at the college and was a member of the Wolfpack golf team his two years at Co-Lin. He is the past president of the Wolf Hollow Golf Association.

Lady Wolves win Region 23 title, heading to Nationals

CLINTON – Led by playmaker Nikki Williams' 31 points the Co-Lin Lady Wolves took a 67-60 win over the Meridian Community College Lady Eagles in the NJCAA Region 23 Championship held at A.E. Woods Coliseum on the campus of Mississippi College. The Lady Wolves (28-3) earned a bid to the NJCAA National Tournament in Salina, Kn., March 20-25.

Williams, a 5-foot-7 sophomore from White Castle, La., hit 7 of 9 from 3-point range. In a physical, see-saw battle, the Lady Wolves held a 36-33 halftime lead. Meridian came out in the second half to take a 47-43 lead on a 3-pointer by NaDosha Strickland with 12:46 remaining. Strickland, 5-9 freshman from Bay Springs, scored a team-high 17 points and pulled down 8 rebounds.

Jennifer Wair gave Meridian its last lead at 57-56 with 3:59 remaining. Williams hit back-to-back treys for the Lady Wolves.

Sophomore post Erica Trahan followed Williams in double digits with 12 points and 5 rebounds. She had 10 of her points in the first half. Trahan joined Williams on the All-Region 23 Tournament Team. Freshman Alisha Mason came off the bench to score 8 points and bag 5 rebounds. Whitfield pulled down 6 rebounds.

Co-Lin guards Hanna Porter and Whitney Scott put defensive pressure on Meridian guards forcing them to commit 22 turnovers.

Co-Lin defeated Meridian for the third time this season. They won 88-75 in Meridian and 59-57 in their meeting in Wesson.

Lady Wolves finish sixth in National Tournament

SALINA, Kan. – The Copiah-Lincoln Community College Lady Wolves finished in sixth place in the NJCAA National Basketball Tournament with a 73-59 loss at the hands of the Chipola (FL) Lady Indians. This was the best finish for the Lady Wolves since 1989 when they placed fourth.

Co-Lin playmaker and leading scorer Nikki Williams was held to four points in the contest. Williams drew extra defensive coverage from opponents after scoring a tournament-high 32 points in the opening round victory over Jefferson, Mo.

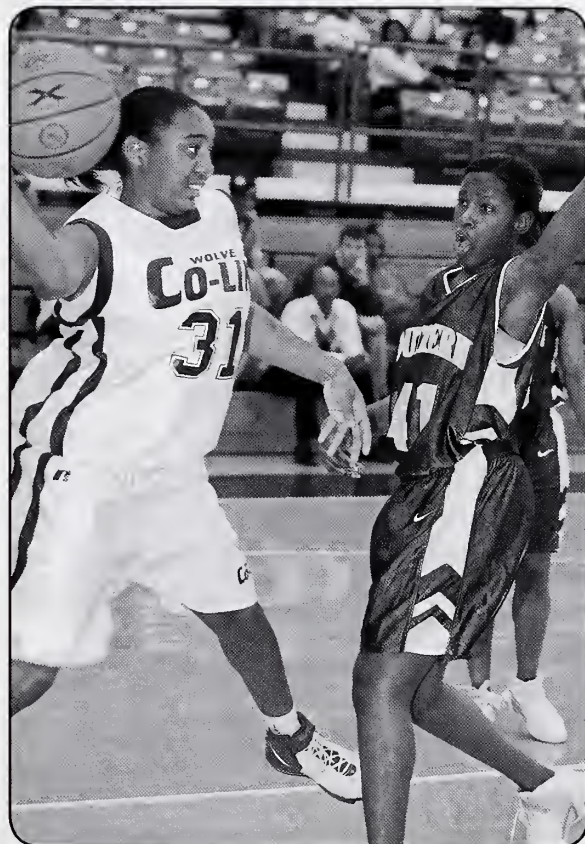

Chipola (30-7) took an early 13-4 lead, hitting their first 5 shots. They shot 57 percent from the field in the first half and held a 41-26 lead at the half.

Co-Lin pulled to within 9 points, 42-32, early in the second half when Scott scored on an inbounds play. But the Lady Indians hit 5 3-pointers in the second half to stave off the charge.

The Lady Wolves got a game-high 10 points from sophomore Whitney Scott. Sophomore post Erica Trahan, who was fighting illness during the week-long tournament, was limited to 6 points and 3 rebounds in limited minutes.

Nikki Williams was named to the NJCAA National All-Tournament Team.

2007 hall of fame

Chris Calcote

Chris Calcote, a 1971 Co-Lin graduate, is currently athletic director for Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College. He is being inducted into the Hall of Fame for baseball, but he also was an outstanding Wolves football player and signed with Delta State University after Co-Lin. Calcote was named Second Team All-State at Co-Lin in 1970. He received his bachelor's degree and master's degree from Delta State.

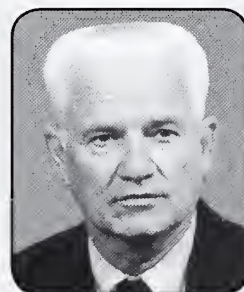

At Co-Lin he played third base and accumulated a batting average of .354 and .357 during his two seasons with the Wolves. He is currently chairman of the Division II Baseball Committee for the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA).

Tara Curtis

Tara Curtis, a 1990 Co-Lin graduate, signed with Louisiana State University where she helped take the Lady Tigers to a Southeastern Conference championship her senior year. She is currently athletic director for Dixon Correctional Institute in Jackson, La.

While at Co-Lin she earned First Team All-State, NJCAA All-Region, and NJCAA All-Region All-Tournament Team both years. She averaged 15 points both years at Co-Lin and averaged 7.6 rebounds her freshman year and 8.5 her sophomore year. She was also a Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges All-Star in 1989.

Troy C. Greer

Troy Greer is a retired educator and former high school football coach and athletic director. The Mendenhall resident twice served as Simpson County Superintendent of Education. He graduated from Co-Lin in 1958 and received advanced degrees from Delta State University and Mississippi College.

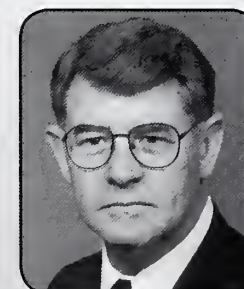

He came to Co-Lin after serving in the U. S. Marine Corp in 1954-56 and was captain of the team. Greer was selected Second Team All-State in 1958. After Co-Lin he played two years at Delta State.

Grady Jones, Jr.

Grady Jones, Jr. is being honored posthumously for accomplishments in football. The Hazlehurst native played football at Co-Lin in 1950 then served in the military during the Korean War. He returned to the Co-Lin Wolves and played guard in 1953-54 and tackle in 1954-55.

He retired from the Mississippi National Guard after 42 years at the rank of captain and also served in Desert Storm. Jones died in 2004 after a long battle with cancer.

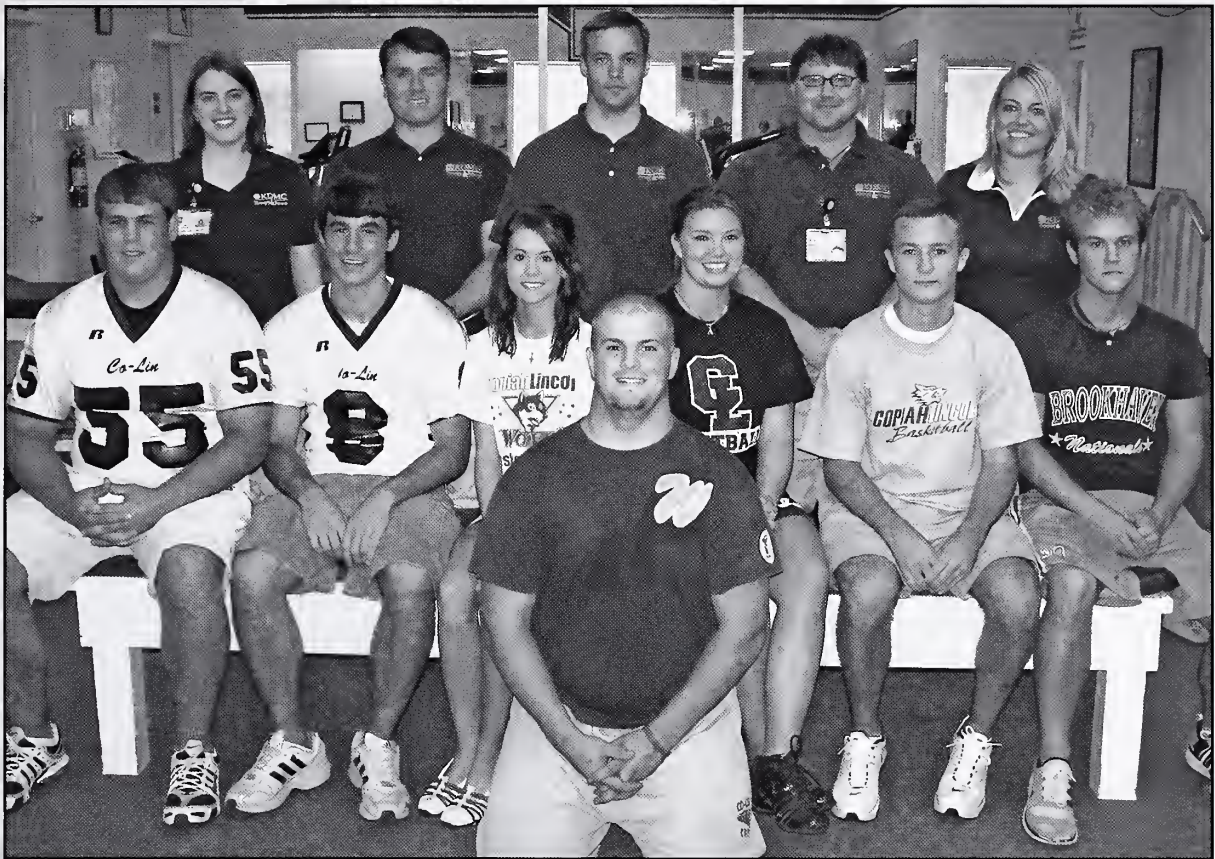

Curtis McMillian

Curtis McMillan, a member of the class of 1960, was named First Team All-State while a member of the Co-Lin football team. He is a former educator and coach at Wesson High School and currently is the owner of a real estate and appraisal service in Mendenhall.

After Co-Lin McMillan attended Mississippi College and graduated from Delta State University with a BSE degree. He served as an assistant coach at Co-Lin for two years under Charlie King.
